OUTING TO BOWOOD HOUSE AND GARDENS

Thursday, 21st September
9.00 am - 6.30 pm arrival home

Bowood House
£45 per head

This is a spectacular attraction that shouldn't be missed, offering breath taking vistas of colour and beauty covering over 60 acres.

Bowood is a stunning Georgian stately home set in hundreds of acres of 'Capability' Brown landscape and gardens in Wiltshire. Bowood has been home to the Lansdown family for over 260 years and carries with it a rich and fascinating history. The 'pleasure grounds' surrounding the House provide a wonderful experience for a range of visitors including families, specialist horticultural and garden enthusiasts, historians, schools, special interest groups.

The price includes tea/coffee on arrival, an opportunity to walk round the house and gardens at your leisure, plus a two course buffet lunch will also be provided at 1 pm.

"This is the last outing for 2017 and promises to be a really enjoyable trip. You may wish to invite friends or family to join you." Robert Parsons, Chair of Marketing & Events
